JAFCO Camp Kehilla is a new and exciting fun-filled summer camp program created for up to 25 children (ages 3 through 22) with a developmental disability, the perfect setting for parents looking for an intimate, safe and nurturing environment for their child this summer. As they spend their day at the new gated JAFCO Ability Center in Sunrise (just minutes from the Sawgrass Expressway with easy access for Dade, Broward and Palm Beach families), children will enjoy a fun individualized camp program designed by our BCBA team that includes music, art, dance, computers, water play, cooking and other fun activities. Middle and high school campers can also choose to participate in their favorite activity club such as drama, computers, legos or cheerleading and all campers will experience a fun day of color war and end each session with an amazing talent show for parents. Calling all Lego builders ages 10 to 16 to join the JAFCO Lego Club! Research has shown that the use of LEGO during play groups for children with autism leads to improved social skills and play skills. LEGO building blocks offer a highly routine, repetitive, structured form of play that many children with autism find appealing. Activities using LEGO can be graded from simple step-by-step instructions to free building that allows for creativity and increasing both verbal and non-verbal communication, sharing, turn taking, collaboration, and other social skills.

During LEGO club sessions, each participant is assigned a job to do, such as putting the bricks together, sorting and obtaining the bricks, designing the project, etc., and these roles are rotated as the project progresses so that each participant gets a turn at each role. The adult Club Facilitator assists participants with problem solving, on task behavior, and providing positive reinforcement of appropriate social interactions.

Children will work in a small group setting with other children with a 3:1 staff ratio. JAFCO Lego Club members will use their computer skills to enroll in the international Lego Club with 3.5 million members around the world entitling them to receive a Lego newsletter in the mail and a safe on-line subscription to the Lego website where they can learn about exciting new Lego products and local Lego events.
